

A Demonstration of Cribbing Transcript

[MUSIC PLAYS]

[The Ohio State University College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences logo]

[Text: Ohio State University Extension]

[Fade to horse putting its mouth on a wooden post.]

[Text: Cribbing or crib-biting is a stereotypy - seemingly functionless repetitive behavior]

Cribbing, or crib-biting, is a stereotypy, or seemingly functionless repetitive behavior.

Cribbing is characterized by grabbing an upright object with the teeth and pulling against the object with an arched neck and sucking air.

[Ohio State ATI]

[Cribbing or crib-biting - Horse behavior]

[Text: This horse has just completed a small meal of pellets.]

This horse has just completed a small meal of pellets.

[Horse licks and nibbles post.]

[Text: Horses often lick a surface that they are about to use for cribbing.]

Horses often lick a surface that they are about to use for cribbing.

[Horse crib-bites using the post.]

[MUSIC PLAYS]

[Fade to credits: Narration and visuals supplied by Sara Mastellar]

[Music from bensound.com]

[This video is intended for educational purposes.]

[More information on this topic can be found in the description.]